THE VIRGINIAS AND CAROLINAS.

TABLET TO MISS DAVIS

Tribute from Daughters of the Confederacy.

IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, RICHMOND

Memorials to the "Daughter of the Confederacy" and Other Members of Her Family Are Now Being Completed - Jefferson Haves Davis, Grandson of the President, Will Inveil the Tablets and Shafts - Those Who Will Attend the Ceremonies.

Va., Oct. 27.-The unveiling s to Miss Winnie Davis, her and other members of the Davis be the most interesting featmeeting here next month of Daughters of the Confeder-Camp of Confederate Veterans, pon the invitation of Mrs. Jef-Davis, decided to take charge of ingements, and appointed a comprovide therefor. There will two chief memorials will be the monument to Miss Winnie daughter of the Confederacy," by Zolnay, of New York, and the Daughters throughout the ided by friends in New York, and emorial tablet to be piac walls of St. Paul's Church to ory of Miss Winnie, a tribute By the side of this tablet on wall of St. Paul's, in which both President Davis and Gen shiped during the war, will be another tablet to the memory of alldren of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson monuments, in addition to that to Miss Winnie, will be smaller ones to Presdent Davis and his son, Jefferson Davis, which will be placed at the heads of graves in Hollywood. The two tabets will be unveiled on the morning of vember 8, and the monuments the next efferson Hayes Davis, the grandson of the President, will unveil all of the me-The orator at the unveiling of the Winnie Davis monument, the event State Senator B. B. Munford. vis. her daughter. Mrs. Hayes, the latr's son, Jefferson Hayes Davis, and Miss Elizabeth Tyler Waller, a niece of Mrs. at Tuscaloosa Institute in the education avis, will be here to attend the cere-

Memorial to Jefferson Davis.

CLOSE OF VIRGINIA SYNOD.

Report Shows 500 Sunday-schools with 50.000 Enrollment.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 27.-Rev. W. Moore, moderator of the Presbyter-Synod of Virginia, preached the closag sermon of the synod this evening. session will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Newport Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., of Richmond, was elected a member of the board of trustees of Union Theological

A memorial service in memory of de ceased ministers occupied part of the afternoon. The report of the Sundayschool committee was made this morning, of the most intelligent class, which shows almost 500 schools within The mill owner has placed in the mill be synod and with an enrollment of al lost 50,000. A committee was appointed look after the advisability of locating Presbyterian home for orphans.

Revenue Officers Confiscate Brandy. Culpeper, Va., Oct. 27.-Revenue Officers

Eddins, Hansbrough, and Bolyn have just returned to this city from a trip through Madison County. They seized the still of J. S. Yowell, of Criglersville, confiscated all the apple brandy he had in his wareroom, and in a search of the premnd several packages of illic They also entered the premise Nicholson, near brandy, brought them here for safe Died Before Aid Could Be Given.

Special to The Post.
Woodstock, Va., Oct. 28.—Early this orning Mrs. Jane Sweeny, wife of John Sweeny, a well-known farmer living on the Shenandoah River, four miles south of Woodstock, died. Mr. Sweeny was aroused by her movements, and call for assistance, but she expired before ald could be given. Mrs. Sweeny had been good health, and it thought that her den death was the result of heart ure. She was fifty-two years old, and survived by a husband and several Timber Burning in Dismal Swamp.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 27.-Forest fires are aging throughout the Great Dismal Millions of feet of standing timwill be consumed unless heavy rain dshes the fire. Near Tucker, on the Norfolk and Western Rallway, the flames are threatening the outhouses of farmers. Game and cattle of every description are being driven before the fire, and black hears are invading the farms contiguous to the swamp.

Senator Elkins Visits Huntington. Special to The Post.

W. Va., Oct. 27.-Senator Mrs. Elkins arrived here this afterme for Incurables, after which the lator was closeted with his political He gave a public reception at Adelphi Hotel this evening. He said imply wanted to get acquainted with numeron people, both Democrats and Senator's party to-morrow afternoon for Parkers-

Kidnapped His Own Child.

elstock, Va., Oct. 28.-Joseph Richformerly of Oranda, this county, as divorced from his wife eigh since when he has lived in appeared at his old home to-day ed at Edenburg with the child. was ar-

Negro Takes His Life.

W. Va., Oct. 26.-Spencer slored, committed suicide this at his home by shooting him th the heart with an old muswas alone in the house at the was a graduate of Howard and was of little account.

Killed Child for Refusing Him Bread.

Va., Oct. 26.-Linwood Wilson t and instantly killed Missouri a ten-year-old colored girl this Special to The Post. about four miles from the city, thing to eat. Wilson is under arrest.

Supervisor Reed Resigns.

Md., Oct. 24.-William B Fr., supervisor of elections for Anne County, has resigned because a candidate for State Senator.

Killed by a Rolling Log. Ungton, W. Va., Oct. 27 .- Near Ceafternoon Samuel J. Ferguson

VIRGINIA D. A. R. ADJOURNS.

Alexandria Chosen as the Place for Holding Next Conference. Special to The Post

Staunton, Va., Oct. 26.—The third annual conference of the Virginia Daughters of the American Revolution adjourned sine after a hard day's work. Mrs. Virginia Hall, of Richmond, read an interesting paper on the methods of promoting the society's growth, suggest-ing a combination of social and literary features and historical studies. Mrs. James R. Hubard and Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, of Norfolk, spoke of the recent work of the D. A. R.'s nurses in the army and navy at Norfolk during the late Mrs. Barton Myers and Mrs. Hubard. of Norfolk, and Mrs. Albert Tuttle, of the University of Virginia, spoke of the proposed establishment of a national park Yorktown and the purchase of Temple farm and the Moore house, where Washington and Cornwallis arranged the articles of surrender. Mesdames Tams, Myers, Tuttle, and W. W. Harper, of Orange, were made a special committee to consider this.

Miss Mary Lyons Mayo, of Richmond, read a paper on Jamestown, suggesting monuments and two memorial that attention be given by the Daughters to this historic spot. Mrs. Purcell Regent, Richmond; Mrs. A. B. Brown, of the Virginia Antiquity Society, and Mrs. Herbert Clairborne, of the Colonial Dames, were appointed to take the Jamestown matter under consideration.

The invitation of Alexandria, tendered through Mrs. W. A. Smoot, to hold the next conference there, was accepted, and Charlottesville was chosen as the place for conference in 1901.

RIGHTS OF WOMEN IN CHURCH. Report Affirmatively Acted on by the Presbyterian Synod. Special to The Post. Huntington. W. Va., Oct. 26.—The atndance at the third day's the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia was much larger than yesterday. The exercises opened with devotional service conducted by Rev. Dr. E. O. Guerrant, of the synod of Kentucky. The consideration of a report on the sphere and rights of woman in the church was continued it was approved and ordered printed in the minutes of the synod. Dr. Guerrant, of Kentucky, made a very interesting talk on the subject of and which all the others cluster, will home missions, and in the afternoon the state Senator B. B. Munford. Mrs. report on colored evangelization was read. Dr. Fraze, of Staunton, talked on this subject, and told of good work done colored ministers. Rev. J. N. Craig, D., presented the assembly's home work.

to-day, and after a number of speeches mission work. Rev. W. S. Campbell spoke on Bible Society work. The synod was tendered a reception at he e Home for Lacurations this evening.

ov. Tyler, of Virginia, and Gov. Atkinn, of West Virginia, were present and idressed the gathering.

EXPERIMENTAL SILK MILL. A New Industry in Fayetteville with Only

Negro Operatives.

pecial to The Post. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 26.—A very interesting experiment at Fayetteville is a silk mill with only negro operatives. Hon. George Seminary, vice Rev. W. S. Lacy, deof the mill, who is from Paterson, N. J., expresses entire satisfaction at the result so far of his experiment. groes are employed in the mill. All are These say the negroes are from Paterson. quick to learn. Business people are watching the experiment with interest, and think it may solve some of the problems of the time, as the complaint has been and is that a large percentage of educated ne-grees will not do manual labor.

Death of a Virginia Woman. cial to The Post.

Culpeper, Va., Oct. 26.-Miss Ellen D. Farish, for many years a resident of this county, but of late a resident of Richnond, died at the residence of her nephew. William R. Robertson, near this city, this morning, in the seventy-seventh year of her age. She was a sister of the late John Parish, of New York city; Mrs. Wilson Somerville, of Culpeper: Thomas Roberton, of New Orleans, and James Farish, of Culpeper. Interment will be in the family burying grounds at Mitchell's to-

Government Buys a School Site

pecial to The Post. Newport News, Va., Oct. 26.-Edgar Alan, United States district attorney for he Eastern District of Virginia, arrived here to-day, and turned over to the agents check for $27,000 in payment for the public building site in this city. The deed was recorded in the clerk's office, and the transfer of the property made from the Old Dominion Land Company to the Unit-

Five Years for Shooting a Woman. cial to The Post.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 26 .- In the Warwick County Court, the case of George Edwards, colored, charged with feloniously shooting Mary George, a negro woman, in August last, was found guilty, and his punishment fixed at five years in the State penitentiary. The woman testified that Edwards shot her because she refused to marry him.

Four Years for Manslaughter.

pecial to The Post. Luray, Va., Oct. 26.—Byrd Rickard, harged with the murder of "Bud" Nichols September 14, was convicted of voluntary manslaughter this morning and sentenced to the penitentiary for four years. The prisoner was visibly affected, much of the time being in tears. The prisoner's aged mother occupied a seat beside him during the trial.

Negroes to Be Hanged for Assault.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 26 .- To-day at Darlington Ed Luckey and Tom Mitchell were convicted of assault upon a respect able white woman at Lamar two ago. They will hang November 24. Their victim was left insensible in the woods, and her condition is now critical. Four other negroes witnessed the crime.

Miss Booth-Mr. Adams.

Special to The Post. Petersburg, Va., Oct. 25.-Union Chanel. in Dinwiddie County, was ite scene this evening of a brilliant marriage the parties being Miss Annie M. Book, daugster of Mr. T. B. Booth, and Mr. I W. Adams. Rev. E. T. Dadman performed the ceremony.

Captain of Confederate Army Dead. tal to The Post. Suffolk, Va., Oct. 26.-Capt. Elisha L.

allard, a former Confederate soldier, dled this morning, aged sixty-six years He was a member of Company C, Thir-Virginia Cavalry. Five sons and Sudden Death at Blue Ridge Springs.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 26.-Mrs. Louise Layman, of Blue Ridge Springs, died sud denly of heart disease early this morning aged sixty years.

Richmond Man Dead.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 26.-Mr. H. M Smith Longhead, of the agricultural implement house of H. M. Smith & Co., died this morning, aged ninety years.

Democratic Nominee in Quarantine. Special to The Post.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 26.-John W. Price. for years deputy collector of internal reve- the Democratic nominee for the ing struck by a rolling log. Ferguson's omalous condition of being quarantined body was pinned against a standing tree against making a canvass of his district. body was pinned against a standing tree and the log had to be cut in two before the body could be removed. He was forty years old, a prominent Mason, and a Democratic leader in his county.

Omaious Condition of Being quarantines against making a canvass of his district. Owing to the prevalence of smallpox in Bristol, where Mr. Price lives, the country around has quarantined against the town, and he has to stay at home.

WINSTON HORSE SHOW.

Prizes Awarded to Lady Riders-Tourna-

Special to The Post.
Winston, N. C., Oct. 28.—Winston's horse show and carnival closed this afternoon with an old-fashioned tournament. The coronation ball was held to-night. The attendance at the park this afternoon was larger and the race programme was one of the best of the week. The first contest was a 2:50 trotting pace, and resulted as follows: First heat, Walton B. first, Lightfoot second. third, and Midnight fourth. Second heat. Walton B. first, Lightfoot second. eessie C. third. Walton B., driven by John Mc-reary was the winner. Trotting race, first heat. Island Boy first; Queen

Bess second, Dolly Patchen third. Island Boy, driven by Col. Lybrook, won the race. The lady riders' contest elicited much interest. There were three entries, Miss Sadie Hanes, of Vinston; Miss Minnie Douthit, of Merksville, and Miss Nannie Hutchison, of Charlotte. The judges gave Miss Hanes first prize, Miss Douthit second, and Miss Hutchison third.

PRINCE OF WALES DECLINES.

Cannot Attend Centennial of Washington's Death at Mount Vernon.

al to The Post. Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 28.—Judge R. V. W. Duke, grand master of Masons of Virginia, has received a letter from his royal highness, the Prince of Wales, of the death of Worshipful George Wash-

The letter concludes: fullest extent the fraternal sentiments so in England do not admit of his having the pleasure of accepting the invitation." Most Worshipful A. R. Courtney, of Richmond, and Right Worshipful Kosciusko Kemper, of Alexandria, members of the centennial committee of the Grand Lodge of Virginia, were in the city to-day making arrangements for the celebration, which promises to be the Masonic event of the century. TELLS A TALE OF MURDER.

Seven Tramps Arrested on Suspicion of Having Killed a Companion.

cial to The Post. Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 29. - Several tramos arrived here last night, and to-day a Frenchman giving the name of Maguel, who had walked from Quantico. lodged a charge of murder against them. He says Friday night he and ten other men left Washington in a box car. Between Alexandria and Quantico one of the tramps selzed another by the throat, and after choking him to death the others jumped on the dead body and stamped it with their feet.

After rifling the pockets of 25 cents they threw the body into the river. When the Frenchman was discovered by the tramps they made a determined effort to kill him also. He defended himself with a razor and jumped from the car. Seven of them were arrested this evening, and it is thought the officers will arrest the others before morning.

BOY ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Was Tired of Living Because His Mother Reproved Him.

Special to The Post. Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25.-Charles O'Brien, The young man used an ordinary table knife, drawing the blade across his left wrist, from which a great quantity of blood flowed, but fortunately the veins were not severed.

O'Brien spoke very calmly to the mayor when arrested, telling him that he was tired of living, and expressed no regret at having made the attempt on his he seemed sorry that the attempt had not been successful. It is said he has been drinking heavily.

Ex-Sheriff Gerling Dead.

Special to The Post.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Oct. 25.-L. C. Gerling, ex-sheriff of this county, died on his way here from Baltimore last night, umption. He was accompanied by his wife and family physician, Dr. S. N. Myers. The deceased started in the hardware business when very young, and was successful. He was a member of the city council a number of times, and was elected sheriff on the Republican ticket in serving four years. He was nominated for the legislature a year ago, but clined to run. He was a director in the ople's National Bank, and with numerous enterprises. He was thirty-nine years old, and leaves a wife pecial to The Post. Newport News, Va., Oct. 29 .- The Young Men's Christian Association of Newport News, as well as the other cities in this section, have taken up the crusade against Representative-elect Brigham H. Roberts, and a petition is being circulated in this Congressional district. This action is taken along the lines suggested by the League of Social Service, which has taken the matter up, circulated a million anti-Mormon pamphlets, and hundreds of pe-titions in different sections of the country. Only legal voters will sign the p titions, which will be sent to Congress.

Y. M. C. A. Crusade Against Roberts.

Death of John J. Lyell.

pecial to The Post. Haymarket, Va., Oct. 29.-Mr. John J. Lyell, a resident of this county, died at beautiful home, "Sanoma," at 5:39 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. Lyell had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for many years, and had been practically be-yond all hopes of recovery for the last few months. His remains will be carried to-morrow to Richmond, Va., where funeral services will be held. Mr. Lyell had been a resident of this locality only had been a resident of this locality only about four years, he having moved here

Secretary Porter at Haymarket.

ial to The Post. Haymarket, Va., Oct. 29.-Mr. J. Addi son Porter, private secretary to Presi-dent McKinley, with Mrs. Porter, spent to-day at the home of Maj. A. Hunter Johnson, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Porter came here this forenoon on the from Washington, in company with Law-yer John M. Johnson and family, of Aiex-andria. The party attended St. Paul's Episcopal Church after leaving the train.

Sash and Blind Factory Burn Special to The Post. Norfolk, Va., Oct. 29 .- The sash, door, and blind factory of John F. Wilkins, on and blind lactory of John F. Wikins, on the outskirts of this city, was completely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The loss on the machinery and stock will be heavy, as there is no in-surance whatever on the plant.

New Suburb for Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 29.-The National Trust Company, of Washington, has pur-chased some eighty-five acres of valuable suburban real estate in West Portsmouth. It is proposed to improve this for a mode!

New River Coal Miners.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 29.-The strike of coal miners which started in the New River district six weeks ago for an ad-vance of 5 cents a ton has been officially declared off. The advance was granted by only thirteen of forty-five mines in the Railroad Mortgaged for $1,000,000.

pecial to The Post.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 28.—A deed of cure an issue of $1,000,000 first mortgage Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of gold bonds, to run fifty years. On the bonor. Rev. O. S. Bunting officiated. The deed was $500 in revenue stamps. The bride is the daughter of Mr. W. E. Wells, The groom is a prominent druggist of Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. Bowden left for Washington and New York on a bridal trip.

Woman Charged with Poisoning Stepson to Return from Indiana. Buena Vista, Va., Oct. 29 .- Sheriff Barley, of Botetourt County, went to Indiana yesterday for Mrs. Belle Bryant, for whom there is a warrant out, charging her with the poisoning of a step-son, Sid-ney Bryant, of Jennings Creek. Some weeks ago he died under suspicious cir-cumstances, and many thought that he had met with foul play. The county supervisors authorized Commonwealth ty supervisors authorized Commonwealth at the first opportunity. Roland Amager, Attorney Allen to have an analysis made a friend of Washby, told him of Banks' of the contents of the stomach of the decasts, and warned him to be cautious. Ceased. Prof. James Lewis Howe, of Washington and Lee University, made the analysis, and the announcement is Last night Amager, in company with made that strychnine was found. Suspicion has been strong against Mrs.

for her arrest taken out and the sheriff of the place asked to arrest her. Requisition papers were about to be taken out when it was learned that she was willing to re-turn without they turn without them

CHECK FROM BOOK FIRM. Charges Made Against School Superintend ent Gunn, of Radford. cial to The Post. Richmond, Va., Oct. 24.-The school grand master of the United Grand Lodge of England, in response to an invitation to attend the observance of the centennial Gunn, superintendent of schools of that town, which the latter body will investiington, December 14, at Mount Vernon. gate, unless they are withdrawn. charges are rather indirect, but allege that "His royal highness reciprocates to the Mr. Gunn, while superintendent, received sums of money from the B. F. Johnson eloquently expressed in your letter, and much regrets that his public engagements

Sums of money from the B. F. Somison Company and other publishing houses. The implication is that Mr. Gunn's influence of the company and other publishing houses.

The Johnson Company explain that their the Johnson Company explain that their check of $50 was to meet the legitimate expenses of Mr. Gunn in coming to Richmond to appear before the State board in indorsement of their books. Mr. Gunn is now in Alabama, and Judge Vaughan has been appointed to act in his stead. Mr. Gunn, who stands high as an educator, had some trouble with the board last summer as a result of his failure to license for reappointment a teacher who he thought ought not to be retained in the

WINSTON FAIR CLOSES.

An Old-time Tournament Will Be Held This Afternoon-Results of Races.

cial to The Post Winston, N. C., Oct. 27 .- The Piedmont horse show and carnival will close to-morrow afternoon with an old-time tournament. The county fair closed this afernoon, and a great many of the exhibits were donated to the City Hospital.

The last of the races were witnessed by a large crowd. Miss Walton won the Miss Walton, ch. m. (Hamlin), first; Little Stoke, g. (Steele), second; Queen Bess, ro. m. (Cannon), third; Skyland Girl, b. m. (Dyer), fourth. Time, 2:241-4, 2:231-2, 2:241-2.

Purse, $50; five-eighths of a mile heats; running. Warsong, b. g. (Houston), first; Grandma, gr. m. (Jones) second; Jack (Davis), third; Young Griffin (Neal), fourth. Time, 1:05, 1:05 1-2.

Summaries:

Sk uner's Trial for Robbery.

pecial to The Fost. Norfolk, √a., Oct. 24.-John Skinner who, with Thomas Baker, is accused of assaulting F.*M. Morgan last April, and of robbing that gentleman and inflicting aged fifteen years, an adopted son of Mrs.
Butler, Second street, Portsmouth, attempted to take his life this morning bewith highway robbery, the penalty for which is death. Skinner made a confession to Deputy Sheriff Carmine, it is claimed, and said Baker was with him at the time of the robbery, but to-day he refused to testify against Baker, and a nolle pros. was entered in that case. nolle pros. was entered in that Counsel for Skinner are trying to the confession thrown out.

Weddings at Wheeling.

Special to The Post.
Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 25.—This has been a day of notable weddings. George H. Forsythe, of Chicago, and Miss Sara Zane Brockunier, daughter of Hon. Charles W. Brockunier, were married at the home of the bride at noon. At St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Mr. William Elliott Heyes, of Chicago, and Miss Isabel Martin Wattis Henry, of this city, were married by Rev. Dr. Jacob Brittingham, and Mr. John Wallace, city editor of the Wheeling Intelligencer, and Miss Olive Doane Dunlap were also wedded to-day.

Government Dredge Rebuilt.

pecial to the Post. Newport News, Va., Oct. 24.—The gov ernment dredge Charleston, which has een at the shipyard for the past four or five months being rebuilt, left this morn-ing about 10 o'clock for Charleston, S. C., where she will again be used to keep the rbor there at proper depth and to edge places needing the attention of the Engineer Department. The Charleston i practically a new vessel. The work of re ilding her cost the government ab

Aid for Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson

pecial to The Post. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25 .- By request of the Confederate Veterans' Association, the Daughters of the Confederacy are ectively at work raising funds to aid to be nearly blind, and also suffering from an incurable disease at her home at Charlotte. One chapter of the Daughters the Confederacy has already rais for her. The fund is to be known the Mrs. Jackson love and sympathy fund.

Economizing in Wheeling.

Special to The Post Grafton, W. Va., Oct. 25 .- The county court to-day ordered the discontinuance use of gas in the court house, cut off all telephones, discharged the janitor, ordered the pavement hose plug taken out, all in the interest of economy. County officers must keep the place clean, light their own offices if used at night, and pay for their own telephones.

Sister Plunges to Death. ecial to The Post Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 25 .- Sister Stan islaus, a superior in St. Joseph's Academy, known to the world as Mary Hohman, ifty-eight years old, last night stepped from a doorway in the third story he academy, to a new addition being erected, and fell to the basement, forty Her dead body was not found till ecial to The Post Annapolis, Md., Oct. 25.-Two weddings took plaace at Annapolis to-day. In the afternoon Mr. John J. Levi and Miss Bessie Wells were married at the residence of the bride, and this evening Mr. John Richard Arnold and Miss Mabel Brown Hanlon were wedded at the home of the

Miss Taylor-Dr. Hawkins. Special to The Post. Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 25.-At the Church of the Good Shepherd this afternoon Miss Lizzle Taylor, niece of Dr. A. B. Hawkins, of Raleigh, and Mr. Henry W. M. M. Ler were wedded. Mr. and Mrs. Mil left this afternoon for the Northwest. ried this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. F. T. McFaden officiating. ial to The Post Petersburg, Va., Oct. 25 .- A very pretty home wedding took place to-uight at the residence of the parents of the k-ide. The parties were Miss Catherine Scott and Mr. Griscoline Wilkerson, both of Dinwiddie

Miss Wells-Mr. Bowden.

morning from the Southside Railway and Development Company to the Richmond Development Company, to section of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Trust and Safe Deposit Company, to section of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of Norfolk, was best man, and Miss Ida Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of the bride of th Wells, a sister of the bride, maid of Gettysburg to-day.

FIVE SHOTS TOOK EFFECT.

Quarrel of Neighbors Led to an Attempt at Murder. Special to The Post. Culpeper, Va., Oct. 30.—Charles Banks, of Eggbornsville, and Joe Washby, of the same neighborhood, both colored, have been enemies for some time. Washby had accused banks of stealing, and Banks had gone about the neighborhood exhibiting his pistol and threatening to kill Washby

Last night Amager, in company with Mrs. Francis Sutton, attended services at the Beulah Colored Baptist Church, and Belle Bryant. She went to Covington Va., and there purchased a ticket to Indias the pair were returning to their home Banks, from out of the darkness, began ana. Information was received from Into shoot at Amager. He fired five shots, diana that she was there and a warrant emptying his revolver, and every one of them took effect. Amager was hit in the hip, shoulder, and over the heart, while Mrs. Sutton was shot in the shoulder and thigh. The pistol was of inferior grade, and to this fact Amager owes his life. Banks made his escape, but the authorities think they have an excellent chance to capture him.

ROBBERY AT NEWPORT NEWS. Shipyard Employe Held Up by Armed

Negroes and His Money Taken. Special to The Post. Newport News, Va., Oct. 30 .- The arrest of a negro named Frank Harris has brought to light a daring highway robbery which occurred Saturday afternoon on Washington avenue, in broad daylight of which James Futrell was the victim After Futrell was paid off at the ship-yard Saturday afternon, he left the yard and started down Washington avenue. short distance below the gate two colored men joined him, and commenced to ask him questions about the shipyard. Suddenly, one of the men asked him how much money he had with him, and before Futre'l could make reply, the high-waymen thrust the barrel of a large revolver in his face. The man with the gun kept Futrell covered while his accomplide "rolled" the victim, securing all of his cash, amounting to $15. The man with the pistol backed off, keeping him covered until his companion got at a safe distance, and then both men broke into a run, one going in the direction of the river and the other toward the rali-

SUCCESSOR TO GEN. WALKER.

Differences in Republican State Committee Prevent a Choice Being Made.

cial to The Post. Richmond, Va., Oct. 27.-The Republican State committee has been in session for two days considering the question of the appointment of a deputy collector in Walker's district.

ranks of the Republicans in that sec-tion, one of the factions being opposed to Gen. Walker's prominence in the and the other being friendly to him. The executive committee held several sessions, but they were unable to agree sessions, but they were unable to agree on the matter for which they were called, and as a consequence the dispute is as far from settlement as ever.

This deputy collectorship will cut an important figure in the next Congressional campaign, and there is no room to doubt that Gen, Walker will have more and stronger opposition than ever before.

Virginia's D. of C. in Session.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25 .- The fifth annual convention of Virginia Division, Daughters of the Confederacy, met this morning in Confederate Hall. It is the first time the State convention has met in Tide. water, Virginia, and the ladies of Portsmouth Chapter, under whose auspices it is held, are somewhat disappointed at the small number of delegates present. Their failure to attend is attributed to the ness of date of the national conve ectal to The Post. Newport News, Va., Oct. 24.-Mr. Thom Bobbitt, aged twenty-six, nearly killed himself at his room in the New Barnes Hotel, Hampton, to-day, by taking an overdose of morphine. Mr. bitt has been in Hampton for some as the local representative of the North American Lightning Rod Company, of Norfolk. When discovered he was in a critical condition. Physicians were sum-moned and his life was saved.

Lightning Rod Man Takes Morphine.

Drowned while Painting a Barge.

Special to The Post. Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—John Bernard Olsen, member of the crew of the barge Hamilton Fish, was drowned about 8 o'clock this morning at Lambert's Point. Olsen, whose home is in Norway, was twenty-two years old and unmarried. He was on a float alongside the barge, which lay in the stream, and was painting the vessel when he fell overboard. Boats went to his assistance, but, as he could not swim, he sank before they reached Verdict of $560 for a Blow.

Special to The Post. Newport News, Va., Oct. 24.-The jury Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson, who is said in the Reynolds-Bristow suit this afternoon returned a verdict of $500 for the plaintiff. The amount sued for was $5,000. Counsel for the defendant at once moved to set aside the verdict. The suit grew out of a personal encounter, in which Reynolds struck Bristow a blow that knocked him senseless.

pecial to The Post. Suffolk, Va., Oct. 24.—Miss Lillie Urquhart Newman was married to-day in Isle of Wight County to Leon W. Stagg. of Norfolk. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's father, John Newman, her brother, Rev. N. G. Newman, of Franklin, officiating. The bride is a sis-ter of Dr. John U. Newman, chairman of the faculty of Elon College, N. C.

pecial to The Post. Roanoke, Va., Oct. 24.—A gang of six negro highwaymen heid up and robbed Andrew Bowles of $3.50 just before daylight this morning. Bowles gave a cription of the robbers, and during the police expect to capture the entire

Unusual Demand for Laborers

Special to The Post, Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.-The great demand laborers in the mountains of Virginia is taking out of this section not only very idle-man, but many who have been at work for small wages. The mountains around Roanoke are filled with prospectors, looking into the merits of iron mines and searching for richer

Miss Boyd and Mr. Hanes Married. Special to The Post. Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 24.-Miss Alice Latham Boyd and Mr. Ernest Langston Va., Oct. 24.-Miss Alice

Notices Served by Telephon Special to The Post. Suffolk, Va., Oct. 24.—Five men were arrested to-day in Nansemond County on the charge of violating the Syster laws. The notices were served by a detective by Hanes, the city passenger agent of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, were mar-telephone. Verdiet of Suicide.

Special to The Post.

ters on his person showed he intended killing himself. His body was taken to

JURORS COULD NOT AGREE. Retrial Ordered for Dr. Anderson-Releas ed on $12,500 Bail. Special to The Post, Danville, Va., Oct. 30.—At 11 o'clock today the jury in the case of Dr. John C. Anderson, on trial at Chatham for the attempted murder of Miss Missia Watson reported their inability to agree. jury had been out since 5 o'clock Satur-were unable to agree, and Judge Tredway kept them until this morning. Upon reporting this morning that it was impossible to agree, the judge discharged the jury and set the case for retrial at the November term of the cour Dr. Anderson was admitted to bail in the sum of $12,500. The jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

day afternoon. Late Saturday they re-ported, through their foreman, that they

DIED IN INSANE ASYLUM.

Demise at Staunton of R. P. Castleman, a Veteran Confederate Soldier. Special to The Post. Berryville, Va., Oct. 30 .- A dispatch was received here yesterday announcing the death of R. P. Castleman, of this county, which occurred early Sunday morning, at the Western State Hospital, at Staunton. where Mr. Castleman had been confined for the past two months. His death, which rect is that there will be a large crowd was unexpected, was caused by apoplexy. notwithstanding, as 225 persons will come The deceased was about sixty-five years from Washington on the Presidential The deceased was about sixty-five years from Washington on the Presidential of age, and was a native of Clark County. Mr. Castleman was a gallant Confederate soldier, and served with conspicuous bravery as the color bearer of the Sixth Virginia Cavalry, of the Army of Northern Virginia. During the last days of the Confederacy, he was elected by comrades-at-arms as a member of the Virginia house of delegates from Clark County.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Three Men Suspected of Having Killed a Companion Near Alexandria. Special to The Post.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 30.-Of the gang of tramps arrested here yesterday. Fred Oliver, Robert Mammen and Daniel preliminary trial to-day, on suspicion of portico, soon after their arrival, which is having been implicated in a murder. James scheduled for 11:15 o'clock. Unless there Dodgers was held for trial for resisting an officer. James Kane and Charles Mc-Govern were discharged. The alleged murder is said to have been committed about six miles this side of Alexandria. The Alexandria authorities have been notified. The tramps hall from Philadelphia and New York.

SENATOR MARTIN SANGUINE. Appears to Feel Secure as to His Continuance in the Senate. pecial to The Post. Staunton, Va., Oct. 30 .- Senator Thomas Gen. Walker's district,

There is considerable difference in the ranks of the Republicans in that section, one of the factions being opposed to Gen. Walker's prominence in the party

A Pioneer of Grafton Dead.

Special to The Pest. Grafton, W. Va., Oct. 24.—John Carr, Grafton, W. Va., Oct. 24.—John Carr, one of the pioneer settlers of Grafton, died late last night of paralysis. He was a machinist and assisted in building the Baltimore and Ohio shops at this place come here with his family from Baltimore. He was the chief mover in building the Grafton foundry and machine shops, and afterward was sole proprietor. He had accumulated a fortune. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon from the residence, in charge of the I. O. O. F., of which he was a member for forty years.

The Shubrick will be laumched sidewise. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee will come to-morrow with the President's party. The President and his immediate party and the Mayor will dine at a special table, and occupy a special stand at the launching. There will be a drive during the afternoon, which will include a visit to the vetrans will receive the President. Little Miss Carrie Shubrick, who is to christen the Shubrick, reached here this afternoon from Rocky Mount, N. C. She is accompanied by her parents and a large party from Rocky Mount. forty years

Fatally Mangled by Locomotive

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 30.—Alexander Davis, colored, aged seventeen years, was struck by a shifting locomotive on the City Point Branch of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, near Young's stock yard in this city, this evening, and fatally injured. He had just returned from work in a tobacco factory here, and was riding on a coal train. In jumping off he petuate this name. tions here are those at the building of the Virginia Historical Society, on Frankin front of an approaching shifter, was struck by it. His back bone was and was struck by it. lin street. This house was the hoing the war of Gen. Robert E. I sides the elaborate display of broken, several ribs over the heart were fractured, and left arm was crushed above the elbow. He died in a few minutes

Fires Rage in Dismal Swams

Special to The Post.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—Forest fires in the Dismal Swan p are said to be sweeping everything before them. The drought has been very severe, and this is the cause of the fires, which, it is reported, are driving hundreds of animals ahead of them. As a sequence corn and other crops are devastated, the famished animais devouring these without reserve. The people in the vicinity of Deep Creek bears every night play havoe with their Roanoke Wou from St. Albans.

Special to The Post.
Salem, Va., Oct. 24.—A game of football was played here Saturday between Roa-noke College and St. Albans. In the first half Roanoke scored one goal kick and a touchdown. In the second half Roanoke cored three touchdowns and two goal Richmond. The following gentlemen lege will play Washington and Lee University in Roanoke City.

Death of Harry S. Brandler. Special to The Post. Cumberland, Md., Oct. 25.-Harry Brandler, son of Chief Judge of the Or phans' Court John N. M. Brandler, and brother of Charles H. Brandler, member of the Maryland legislature, died night of a complication of diseases, after two weeks' illness, aged twenty-eight years. He was unmarried. Mr. Brandler was an active Republican worker and a prominent Elk.

Death of a Relative of Lincoln.

Special to The Post.

Luray, Va., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Josephine Almond, widow of the late T. M. Almond, was buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Luray, yesterday. Mrs. Almond was a Miss Lin coln, a relative of President Abraham Lincoln, Mrs. Almond is survived by r of children, among whom is Mrs. T. Judd, of Washington. The deceased was about sixty-five years of age.

Wealthy Cumberland Woman Dead.

erland, Md., Oct. 20.-Mrs.

Reynolds, aged eighty-one years, widow of

Special to The Post.

John Reynolds, one of the wealthiest women of Cumberland, died early this morning of old age. She owned the exten-sive Reynolds business block. Three daughters survive.

Thieves Rob Dentist. Special to The Post.
Petersburg, Va., Oct. 20.-Waverly Stewsecial to The Post. Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 24.-The dental office of Dr. W. W. Monroe, of this city, was looted last night of about $600 worth of dental material and appurtenances. The stolen articles comprised sets and parts of sets of teeth, gold crowns, gold for filling, and many miscellaneous articles used at dental chairs.

Bridal Pair at Fredericksburg. ecial to The Post.

Special to The Post.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 24.—Mr. William Murphy and Miss Alice Virginia Coghill, both of this city, were married here last night at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. J. P. Stump officiating. Eastern Virginia Conference Meeting.

Special to The Post.
Norfolk, Va., Oct. 36.—Isaac Bryant, colored, of Norfolk, was arrested to-day on the charge of drawing a pension from Richmond's Preparation for Shubrick's Launching.

PRESIDENT TO BE CITY'S GUEST

With the Cabinet He Will Attend Ceremonies and Review Great Trades Parade-Gen. Fitzbugh Lee, Gov. Tyler, and Sensters Daniel and Martin Will Participate -First Warship of This Class Ever Built in the South-Fredericksburg's Welcome.

ecial to The Post. Richmond, Va., Oct. 30 .- The Shubrick. the first torpedo-boat built in the South, will be kunched from the yards of the Quigg Company here to-morrow afternoon. The President of the United States, a majority of the members of his Cabinet, and a large number of other government prospects of good travel. Indeed, many people came into town this evening.

Senators Daniel and Martin are already here. Gen. Lee was to-day added to the honorary reception committee of which Serators Daniel and Martin, Gov. Tyler, Judges Waddill and Lewis, Congressman Lamb, and others are members.

The hour fixed for the launching is 3:30 o'clock, and efforts will be made to have the ceremony occur as promptly as possible. To Review Trades Parade. This will be preceded by a big trades parade, which will be formed at 10 a. m., and be reviewed by the President and sullivan were held by Mayor Rowe, in a party from the Jefferson's Franklin street portico, soon after their arrival, which is is rain to interfere, the procession will probably be two and a half miles long. Mr. S. W. Travers, chairman of the civic carnival executive committee, will be the chief marshal. The President and party will come on a handsome special train, which will be run under the personal direction of Traffic Manager Warren P. Taylor, of the Rich-mond, Fredericksburg and Potomac road. A delegation from the reception commit-tee will meet the party at Ashland, and Gov. Tyler will there welcome the President to Virginia. Mayor Taylor will ex-Martin arrived here last night and left tend the same courtesy on behalf of the his evening for Washington. While in city when the special gets to Elba stathis evening for Washington. While in city when the special gets to Elba stathe city Lieut. Gov. Echols, Senator John tion. The President is not expected to N. Opie, Hon, J. W. Churchman, nominee speak at Elba further than to acknowlfor the house of delegates, were among edge the courtesy. The party will drive the Senator's prominent visitors. Mr. Mar-hurriedly to the Jefferson in order to view the parade. After the procession passes the party will be given a launcheon in the Jefferson dining-room, at which there will be about 250 or 300 guests. From here the visitors will drive to the shipyards and occupy seats at the front of the big grand stand, which runs down to within a few feet of the deals in which to within a few feet of the dock in which the Shubrick will be launched sidewise.

Want a Battle-ship Virginia. At a meeting here to-night of the Colonial Dames a resolution was adopted appointing a committee to wait upon the President and request him to name the next battle-ship built by the government Virginia. The Merrimac, the Confederate ironclad, was named Virginia, and the battle-ship which the society asks the President to name is expected to per-flags, two immense streamers are sus-pended from the cornice of the house to the ground, upon which are inscribed the names of all those Virginians who have aken a conspicuous part in the United states Navy. Commodore Maury heads the list

Among the rost picturesque decora-

Fredericksburg's Welcome. Special to The Post. Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 30.-The committee of arrangements and reception will meet the President's train at Quantico, twenty-two miles north of here, to-morrow morning and accompany the Presi-dent and party from that point to this city. An immense crowd will be gathered at the station to greet the President on his arrival, which will be announced by music from Bowering's Band and cheers from the assembled thousands. The President, after being presented by Councilman M. G. Willis, will speak about five train, and the train will then speed on to kicks. St. Albans did not score, making the score Roanoke College 23, St. Albans president from Quantico: Councilmen M. nothing. On Saturday next Roanoke Col. G. Willis, E. D. Cole, and W. H. Hur-G. Willis, E. D. Cole, and W. H. Hurkamp, Citizens J. S. Potter, T. E. Morris, J. M. Griffin, A. T. Embrey, T. M. Mc-Crac'ten, H. H. Johnston, T. N. Brent, George W. Wroten, W. E. Bradley, S. J. Quinn, A. R. Rowe, jr., and W. H. Merchant.

The Presidential Trip.

The President and most of the members of his Cabinet will leave here this morning at 8 o'clock over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad for Richmond, to participate in the exercises incident to the launching of the torpedo-boat Shubrick. A step of ten minutes will be made at Fredericksburg on the way down. The party will return to the city at 10:35 to-night. The illness of Vice President Hobart will not interfere with this programme, but should an announcement of his death be received before the time for departure, the trip will be abandoned.

Addition to Norfolk Naval Station. Special to The Post.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 39.—The examination of boundaries of the Cedar Grove property, opposite the naval station, and re-cently condemned by the government for an addition thereto, was begun here today. Rear Admiral Endicott, chief of the bureau of yards and docks; Chief Engineer Asserson, of the New Yard, and Chief Engineer Maxson Boston yard, were witnesses for the gov-

Two Negroes Mysteriously Sho

art and Arthur Carr, colored, of Dinwid-die County, were both shot to-day in that county, but how the shooting oc was not learned. One of the man was in the back and the other in the leg.

Senator Depew's Nephew Will Marry. Special to The Post.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 30.—The engagement is announced of Mr. Mitchel Depew, nephew of United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, to Mrs. Perry Adams, of Norfolk. Mrs. Adams is the daughter of Mr. J. C. Perry.

Charged with Pension Fraud.

Special to The Post.
Suffolk, Va., Oct. 39.—The Eastern Vir-Petersburg. Va., Oct. 28.—A deed of trust was placed on record in the office of the clerk of the Hustings Court this wells and Mr. W. Francis Bowden, were Gettysburg, who was found on the streets last four days.

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 20.—The jury of ginla conference will convene in annual on the charge of drawing a pension from session to-morrow at Waveriy. It will the United States government under the name of Isaac White.